A GREAT PAGEANT.

A great pageant to be staged by the members of Bethel A. M. E. Church and the Colored Citizens of Columbia. Fifty-eight years of Negro progress to be displayed.

Plans are now underway for a very elaborate exhibition which is to be had Sept. 5th—"Labor Day."

This exhibition promises to be the most educative as well as inspiring affair ever staged by Negroes in the south.

It's purpose is to show, step by step, along all lines since his emancipation. Beginning with the Negro in his log cabin and showing his gradual rise and varied achievements.

It is the aim of the various committees to have excursions come from the neighboring towns so that others may witness this great affair as well as Columbians.

By the Committee.
